

Hope Lutheran Church

November 2021

From the Pastor,

A natural theme for November is thankfulness. It is a month to count our blessings. But counting blessings without the willingness to say thank you to someone creates a feeling of entitlement. Some people fail to say thank you out of forgetfulness and some out of embarrassment that they received something they did not feel they deserved. Some refused to give thanks so they do not feel as if they owe the other anything in return. Some just believe they deserve it and you are lucky that you had a chance to serve them.

Giving thanks for one's blessings often leads to gratitude. People who are grateful for what they receive are more likely to be generous with others. Thanksgiving is a time when more people seem grateful and are willing to help others in need. Many charities try to take advantage of this general gratefulness and mail requests or phone with requests for donations for their charities.

For Christians gratefulness begins with God's grace given to us on the cross and empty grave. Feeling forgiven leads to counting the other blessings God has given to us. We can ignore what we don't have and center on God and what we do have. When I realize I have more than I actually need I can then seek ways to share with others. God's generosity can be contagious. Catch gratitude and generosity and avoid colds, flu and cold this holiday season.

Pastor Jim

Pastor and Kathy would like to thank Grace and Hope for their gifts for our Ordination anniversary, birthday and wedding anniversary. Also thank you to members for cards and those who were able to enjoy the beautiful day, October 17th, with us.

A special thank you to everyone who donated items for our health care kits and school kits. We had a great response making 112 health care kits and 80 school kits! A big thank you to the ladies who donated their time and labor to put the kits together and pack the boxes. A big thank you to Jane and Dave Antholz who have volunteered to deliver all the boxes to Omaha. Great work everyone!

The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky proclaims its maker's handiwork.

Psalm 19:1

Happy Halloween! Be safe!

Psalm 100

"Shout for joy to the LORD,
all the earth. Worship the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful songs.
Know that the LORD is God.
It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. For the LORD is good and his love endures forever;
his faithfulness continues through all generations."
