

Hope Lutheran Church

April 2022

From the Pastor,

It is still the season of Lent as I write this and you are reading this column. We are still on our Lenten journey walking with Jesus to the cross. Good Friday is our destination. Death and hopelessness is the only thing the disciples can see and feel on Friday of Holy Week. The death of Jesus on the cross means the Romans are still in charge and all the Apostles and disciples' hopes, dreams, and expectations are dead. Where is God in all this? The God Jesus called Father is deafeningly silent.

"Where is God in this?" was the question we discussed at the March 16th Midweek Lenten service. 2020 became a hopeless, lost year. 2021 was becoming more hopeful but the hope was riding a rollercoaster. 2022 allows us to begin moving forward. But forward towards where and what? That was the theme of the Wednesday service, "Who Are We Now as God's People in 2022." We are asking a similar question the Apostles asked after their hopeless Friday and Saturday turned into a confused hope with the discovery of the empty tomb, "Who are we as God's people now that Jesus is raised from the dead?"

A war in Eastern Europe is adding stress to an already covid stressed world and economy. All the problems caused by countries closed down by covid are compounded by two countries at war that are affecting the global economy. Hunger issues will get worse. Inflation will possibly sky rocket. Where is God in all this? Keep asking the question. It is called prayer. Keep putting yourself and the world in God's hands. We must try not to be part of the evil trying to destroy God's creation which includes people. Hopelessness may sneak into our lives as it did as covid made life difficult in our country.

April 17th the answer to the disciples' question of, "Where is God in all of this" pops up or out of the tomb. God was there the whole time. God was also crying but no one heard. God said be patient but no one heard but no one was really listening because all we could hear was our own complaining. That is normal. But the cross and empty tomb shouts God is in charge and we are not. The Kingdom of God does extend to earth but so often sinful humans fight against it. But the resurrection of Jesus conquers our sin, our death as separation from God, and the power of the devil over us.

Alleluia! Christ Is Risen!

Pastor is recommending Harley Lubben to be Confirmed April 24th. Jane Antholz will pick up a gift for her.

OLD BUSINESS: Kelly Bridgemon has been hired to grind the stumps at the cost of $450.00. We will do the cleanup. Dave Antholz will be there when Kelly does the work and David Lubben will see to the clean up. David Lubben will also let Gregg Sell know when this is happening.

A concern was voiced about the length of time the dumpster has been sitting on the street across from the church making it harder to find parking. Janice Beethe will go to the village board meeting to voice our concerns.

Ten days of the February electric bill will be assessed to the Abbnik family and then they will pay all of the bills as long as they remain.

Gutters on the parsonage and church need to be cleaned out. Council decided to wait for a rainy day to do this.

The furnace room has some old paint that needs to be removed. The Johnson County Barn in Tecumseh is accepting household waste April 2nd 11:-12:30. Keith Moss volunteered to see that it got there. There are also some old shelves that need to be removed.

Sharon Carman mentioned finding a number of old red and brown hymnals while cleaning the Sunday School closet. It was decided we should clean them and offer them to the congregation and then give the remaining ones to Good Will.

We assigned the counting schedule: 3/20-Dave Antholz,3/27- Russell Moss, 4/3-Dave Lubben, and 4/10-Mark Panko.

April Bible Study will be on April 21st instead of the week before which falls on Maundy Thursday.

There being no further business, we closed with the Lord's Prayer and enjoyed lunch served by Judy.

Welcome to Holton Scott Watermeier! He was born March 2, 2022 to Scott and Lorna Watermeier. His big sister is Addison and grandmother Janice Watermeier Beethe. Welcome to the world little one and may God bless all of you.

Ladies, your Southeast Nebraska Spring Gathering is going to be held on May 21st at the Lutheran Center on the University of Nebraska campus. (Exact address and parking information will follow at a later date.) This year we are concentrating on being able to do all things through God who strengthens. We will be hearing some personal testimonies. Because one of the testimonies is from a lady who is a past prison resident our in-kind offering will be for prison ministry Bridges for Hope has shared that they could use kitchen items, the everyday things we all use, dishcloths, dish towels, spatulas, paring knives, potato peelers, can openers, measuring spoons, and/or cups, dish soap, scratchers, rubber scrapers, and whatever else you might feel useful. (Gently used items would be welcome too.) They suggested that we put these items in a tote to make kitchen kits and then the totes can be used for carrying laundry, storage etc. All of us can participate in the in-kind offering. We will have a couple of totes in the back of the church starting in April. If you want to participate in this ministry it would be much appreciated.

Help carry each other's burdens. In this way you will follow Christ's teachings.
Galatians 6:2

Now, suppose a person has enough to live on and notices another believer in need. How can God's love be in that person if he doesn't bother to help the other believer?
