Sunday of the Passion/Palm Sunday

*****

The Sunday of the Pasion or Palm Sunday as it is usually called commences on a high note of joy and anticipation just as the Sunday before Passover began on the final week of Jesus' life. Our worship today begins with a Procession with palm branches held high to welcome the King. By the midpoint in the service, the gospel account of Jesus' passion and death is read and the mood changes. Holy Week has begun.

The Procession with Palms

P: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

C: Hosanna to the Son of David.

P: The Lord be with you,

C: And also with you.

P: Let us pray. Mercifully assist us, O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts whereby you have given us life everlasting, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Processional Gospel                      Mark 14:1-72

Congregation raises their branches.

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

P: We praise and thank you, O God, for the great acts of love by which you have redeemed us through your Son, Jesus our Lord. On this day He entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was acclaimed Son of David and King of Kings by those who scattered their garments and branches of palm in his path.

We ask that you bless these branches and those who bear them, and grant that we may ever hail him as our Lord and King and follow him with perfect confidence; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

P: Let us go forth in peace.

C: In the name of the Lord.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 50:4-9a

The Lord God has given me
the tongue of a teacher,
that I may know how to sustain
the weary with a word.
Waking to answering his summons—
no one was ever
to know or know who was taught.
The Lord God has opened
my ear,
and I was not rebellious,
I did not turn backward.
I gave my back to those who
struck me,
and my cheeks to those who
pulled out the beard;
I did not hide my face
from insult and spitting.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord God helps me;
therefore I have not been dis-
graced;
therefore I have set my face like
flint,
and I know that I shall not be
put to shame;

<sup>8</sup>he who vindicates me is near.
Who will contend with me?
Let us stand up together.
Who are my adversaries?
Let them confront me.

<sup>9</sup>It is the Lord God who helps me;
who will declare me guilty?

Psalm 31:9-16

SECOND READING: Philippians 2:5-11

Let the same mind be in you that
was in Christ Jesus,

<sup>7</sup>who, though he was in the form
of God,
did not regard equality with God

as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human
form,

<sup>8</sup>he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death—
even death on a cross.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore God also highly exalted him
and gave him the name
that is above every name,

<sup>10</sup>so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and
under the earth,

<sup>11</sup>and every tongue should
confess
that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.
