

Hope Lutheran Church

April 2024

From the Pastor,

I sometimes find it challenging to find inspiration to write this column because I have to write about the upcoming month while still focused on the worship and projects of the month I am still in.

I need to write, "Christ Is Risen! Alleluia!" But it is Holy Week and our tradition avoids exclaiming alleluia during the worship. My Palm Sunday sermon was sort of upbeat, but my Passion Sunday sermon did not end very upbeat. I ended with the question, "What kind of father is God to just stand by and watch His Son die such a painful death?"

The answer to that question took a whole week to answer. The answer came March 31st when the church gathers to exclaim "CHRIST IS RISEN! ALLELUIA!!" Holy Week is even more of a downer than is penitent Lent. We move from Palm Sunday towards a funeral. Does anyone really enjoy a funeral? Even when people try to put the fun back into funerals by calling it a celebration of life service or ceremony, does anyone look forward to attending? Death is death. Gone is gone.

God gives the funeral a different meaning. God declares Easter morning that everyone was wrong about their vision of Jesus. He is God's Son and He had to die in order to live. Jesus had to be raised from the dead in order to conquer your sin, your death, and the power of the devil over you. Easter celebrates God claiming you as His own. Now this Easter season will you claim your place in God's Kingdom given to you through the actions of God the Father through Jesus.

If so, then exclaim, "JESUS CHRIST IS RISEN INDEED!"

Pastor Jim

Fourth Graders: Sheriden Thompson and Charlotte Wellensiek completed First Communion training and received their first communion Maundy Thursday, 28th.

Church Seasons: The Church Season of Sunday of Easter began March 31st with the Resurrection of Our Lord. The color is white and Alleluias return to the Sunday liturgy. Flowers will once again grace the altar. It is a season of joy and celebration of God overcoming our sin and its consequences through the cross.
