April 2025

From the Pastor,

Jesus Christ is Risen! Alleluia! He is Risen Indeed!

Wait, don't say that yet. We have a long time yet to live without alleluias and focus on life. We are still in Lent walking to the cross and death. We are still repenting and being penitent. We shouldn't rush to alleluias yet. Life has not arisen from death yet.

We need to face death with Christ. We need to remember there is a price to Jesus and God in order to give us Life. The death of Jesus as us, human, can give us hope that death may not be the end of life as we know it. But Jesus dying does remind us all things die. Death is death unless it is not.

Holy Saturday is a day of sorrow and hopelessness. For the disciples it is a day to wait for nothing. A Sabbath day where work was forbidden but who wants to work when one is full of such great sorrow and hopelessness. Mary and the other woman/women could not wait until Sunday when they could at least do something besides just wait in hopelessness. Something was better than doing nothing. The male disciples did nothing except grieve and be confused as to what to do next.

We can sit in a locked room and do nothing when we feel hopeless or we can leave the safety of the room and seek Jesus. The women gave up safety and found the Risen Lord. April 20th we come to church to proclaim: Christ is Risen! Alleluia! Sometimes one must live in the hopelessness in order to find the Hope in Christ.

P.S. Take a look at the calendar over his desk in Pastor's office at Grace to understand why he can't wait until March is over. He keeps feeling as if he is being watched and judged.

Pastor Jim
