Resurrection of Our Lord / EASTER DAY

Prelude, Welcome, Announcements

P: Christ is Risen!

C: He is Risen indeed! Alleluia!

Invocation

P: Blessed be the Holy Trinity, one God, the fountain of living water, the rock who gave us birth, our light and our salvation. Amen

Confession

P: Let us come into the light, the revealing and healing light of God. God of grace and glory.

You have brought us through the night of sin into the light of Jesus' resurrection. Yet our lives are still shadowed by sin. Make us new as you make all things new. Rescue us from evil and the gloom of sin, renew us in grace, and restore us to living in your holiness, through Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.

Opening Hymn Jesus Christ is Risen Today

LBW # 151

Greeting & Kyrie

pg. 57

Hymn of Praise: He is Lord! He is Lord! He is risen from the dead and he is Lord. Every knee shall bow, every tongue confess. That Jesus Christ is Lord!

Prayer of the Day (in unison)

O, God, you gave your only Son to suffer death on the cross for our redemption, and by his glorious resurrection you delivered us from the power of death. Make us die every day to sin, that we may live with him forever in the joy of the resurrection, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

FIRST READING: Acts 10:34-43

Then Peter began to speak to them: "I truth understand that God shows no partiality. "But in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. "You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all."

This message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: "how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. "We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; "but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, "not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. "He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. "All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

Psalm 118:1-2, 14-24

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 15:19-26

If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

"But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died. "For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being; "for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ. "But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. "Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power. "For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. "The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

or Acts 10:34-43 [see First Reading]

GOSPEL: Luke 24:1-12

On the first day of the week, at early dawn, [the women] came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. "They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, "but when they went in, they did not find the body. "While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. "The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. "Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, "that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again." "Then they remembered his words, "and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. "Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. "But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. "But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.
