

From the Pastor,

I just returned from a whole week at Confirmation Camp. I tease that my “Camp High” lasts about 2 weeks. That excitement about the camp activities and twice a day worships, and the energy that middle schoolers and college age counselors bring to the week.

What excites you? What gives you energy or renews your energy? Many get energized for the week by attending Sunday Worship. We receive forgiveness for things done/left undone the past week and begin the week being renewed by worship and the body and blood of Christ, and being in God’s word. My “worship high” is not usually the same level as my “camp high”, but there is something about worship that prepares me for the upcoming week. Some people even say the week feels off when they were unable to attend Sunday worship.

Pastor Jim

Church Seasons: We are now in the Time after Pentecost Church season. There are few festival days and the Sunday text center around how to live our lives as children of God.

Tanzanian Bishop Visits Cook

Members of Grace Lutheran Church in Cook recently welcomed Bishop Dr. Frederick Shoo of the Northern Diocese of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Tanzania (ELCT-ND) to their community. Bishop Shoo was accompanied by his wife, Janet, and Ronnie Green, Tanzanian Missions Volunteer Coordinator for the Nebraska Synod.

The morning started with a gathering at Grace Lutheran Church. Cheryl Grundman, Church Council President, welcomed the guests. She provided a history of Cook and Grace Lutheran Church. In addition, several favorite hymns were sung during the program.

Later in the morning Robin and Andrea Eggleston's farm southwest of Cook was toured. The visitors had an opportunity to learn about solar wells. Raising horses and growing flowers for sale were business opportunities that were explored.

Lunch was enjoyed at the annual Memorial Day weekend luncheon at Hope Lutheran Church in Burr, giving the Shoos an opportunity to visit a neighboring community.

The final stop was a tour of Bryce and Lisa Cropp's farm north of Cook. Bishop Shoo and Mrs. Shoo were thrilled to learn about corn and soybean production. They were delighted to see up close a 290 HP tractor, a 24-row planter, and a 12-row combine.

Bishop Shoo was in Nebraska to receive an honorary Doctorate of Divinity Degree from Midland University in Fremont and to be a Keynote Speaker at the ELCA Nebraska Synod Assembly in Kearney.

NSWO's Saved to Serve Opportunity Retreat Mosaic in Beatrice, NE

August 8-10, 2025

Mark your calendars and plan to join us for a fun weekend at the Mosaic Facility in Beatrice.

Get acquainted with your sisters in Christ from across the state as we learn about Mosaic's new and existing programs on Friday evening. Three individuals from Mosaic will tell their stories. Following closing devotions we will head for our overnight lodging.

Saturday there will be Bingo, bell ringing, sing-a-longs with Karaoke, jokes, a picnic, and jewelry making with the individuals. A tour of the campus is on the agenda as well. That evening we will enjoy dinner and activity with our Women of the ELCA sisters in Christ.

• Sunday we plan to worship in the Mosaic Chapel, have a dedication service sharing our highlight and enjoy lunch before we have our group hug and head home.

Plans are still being made. Registration forms will be in the Expressions Newsletter, on the NE Women of the ELCA website, and at Spring Gatherings. Retreat cost remains $39 since 1998.

For questions call Mary Mayfield 402-778-0291 or Donna Bentjen 402-429-0745 leave message
